Russian Artists Bring Their Talent to Mattapoisett

Russian artist Vasili Lesin smiles modestly when hearing the translated compliments on his work, his minor shrug capturing the essence of his humility as a painter.

But looking at his world-class watercolor paintings, one is struck by the intense emotion and feeling which has been poured into each and every one. They look more like meticulous oil paintings than the more free-flowing medium of watercolor. From the dark, brooding aura of a painting called "The Phantom" to the uplifting and inspirational swing of "The Angel," Mr. Lesin's work defies easy comparison and moves one to believe they are in the presence of a true "master."

Thanks to the interest and efforts of local man Dan Brulé and his One Sky Trading Company in North Dartmouth, Mr. Lesin and two other Russian artists — his son Alexei, an avant garde oil painter, and sculptor Damir Nugmanov — have been brought to America as part of an intricate and cooperative exchange effort with natives of the former Soviet Union.

"We started about three years ago to bring former Soviets and Americans together," Mr. Brulé said. "These three artists are all from Ufa, the capital city of Bashkortostan (Bashkiria), an ancient republic absorbed into the Soviet Union. The city is essentially autonomous now, they're still part of the Russian federation, but separate."

The genesis of the exchange program began when Mr. Brulé started teaching in Russia over three years ago. To date he has brought some 30 Russians to America and has sent another 18 Americans to Russia. The exchange program has afforded each group the chance to experience the two countries' diverse cultures and learn more about what makes the diametrically opposed political systems of democracy and communism tick.

"I'm acting like a bridge to see if we can get people together and see if some cooperative efforts can happen," Mr. Brulé said. "They're a very rich culture and they have a lot of high-tech ideas and developments to offer."

One of the many things they have to offer are the unique talents of several artists, of which Vasili Lesin is among the cream of the crop. Born in his native Bashkiria in 1943, he is considered the premier watercolor artist in his country. Having displayed his works throughout the Soviet Union since 1972, at which time he was selected to represent "Soviet Water Colors," he has exhibited work in Poland, Germany, France, Mexico and has several paintings in private collections throughout the world including Israel, Europe, Turkey, Japan, China and America.

"I like America very much, it's a different kind of lifestyle," Vasili said through Mr. Brulé's translation efforts. "It's very free here. The people are very helpful and have treated me like a guest. I especially like the (local people)."

In an article by Russian art critic Svetlana Sobolevskaya, Mr. Lesin said of his favorite painting medium: "Watercolor is a heavenly material to reflect emotions; watercolor is great in describing deep feelings of your heart, the moments of artistic illumination when the inner essence of things is being opened to you."

In addition to his formal watercolor work,

Above: Russian artists now staying in Mattapoisett include (l. to r.) Sculptor Damir Nugmanov, Watercolor Painter Vasili Lesin, and his son, Alexei Lesin, an Avant Garde Painter. Behind them is Dan Brulé, the man responsible for bringing them to America via an exchange program.

Mr. Lesin has done color pencil sketches of several local people and pets and loves to create. Mr. Brûlé noted that all three artists are eager to work and wind up drawing and painting just to have something to do.

Now, many local people have begun commissioning their work.

"As people start to see their work, they're interested in commissioning them," said Mr. Brûlé. "Vasili has even traded some of his smaller work for art supplies at a local store."

"It's really starting to happen now where local people are responding to their work," agreed Kitty Smith, a Mattapoisett resident who has volunteered her help with the exchange program.

"Hopefully they can sell a lot of their art in the area."

"(Vasili) is very much into interpreting not only his spiritual values, but also the spirit of his people. There's a very strong political and spiritual connection in his work."

Mr. Lesin's son, Alexei, is more of an avant garde, impressionistic painter. His works are striking and colorful and display an interesting similarity to his father's work. Damir Nubmanov works in both the sculpting and charcoal drawing mediums and has created some finely-crafted statuettes in bronze and clay.

The program's success relies on the volunteer efforts of host families and residents like Ms. Smith, both here and in Russia, to offer food and lodging for the participants. The three artists arrived on August 9 and are presently staying with Mattapoisett resident Joyce Jacobsen. Ms. Smith has also offered to take them in when Ms. Jacobsen can no longer do so and is anxious to travel to Russia as one of the program's next exchange volunteers.

"I got involved through Dan and Joyce and I decided this morning that I'd like to travel to Russia and see more of their culture," she said.

As part of the Massachusetts/Bashkiria Friendship Delegation, the artists are here on an extended visa to share their talent with America and, hopefully, glean some experiences from the "free world."

Last summer, Governor William Weld even declared August 7 "Massachusetts/Bashkortostan Friendship Day," inviting private citizens and businesses to participate in the exchange of ideas and culture with the former Soviet republic. One of the agreements for this exchange was to have Damir create a sculpture commemorating this newly-established cooperation between the Russian country and the Commonwealth. Having made recent arrangements to use the facilities at UMass Dartmouth, Damir will begin work on this sculpture shortly.

"I've been out exploring (Russia) and discovering people, places and things, and then I try to bring people here so that they can do the same thing — to see what we have," Mr. Brulé said. "My original goal was to get 1 million Russians together with 1 million Americans. Well, I've still got another

The board then announced that the Finance Committee (FinCom) will meet on September 14, prior to the regular Selectmen's meeting to approve articles being considered for placement on the warrant to be voted on at the next Special Town Meeting to be held in October. Ms. Adams requested that anyone wishing to have an article included on the Special Town Meeting warrant should submit it to her office no later than September 14. Items will then be prioritized and those not included at the Special Town Meeting scheduled for Monday, October 18 at 7:30 pm will be included at the next Annual Town Meeting in May, 1994.

Incoming correspondence for the week included a letter from Carolyn C. Gilmore, Secretary of the ORR Cross-Country Booster Club, requesting a donation to purchase warm-up suits for the school's Cross Country Team. Although the group has previously run a fundraiser and managed to collect $200, they are still quite shy of their $900 goal to purchase outfits for every team members. The team has previously qualified for the All-State Championships. Voting on a contribution from the town will take place at the Special Town Meeting.

The board next received a letter from Lawrence DiCara complimenting the board on their recent efforts to beautify the town and asking that something be done about the abandoned property located directly across from his home on Creek Road. Chairman DeCosta said that he would visit the property this week and ask that Building Inspector Andrew Bobola accompany him. He will then report back to the board next week.

An invitation from the Plymouth County Development Council was next read. The meeting will be held at the Ridder Country Club in Whitman, on Monday, September 27, 1993.

Notification was received that the Public Prosecutor's Office will hold its annual meeting on Wednesday, October 6, at the Bay Point Country Club.

David J. McIntire, Jr. of Dennis Mahoney & Sons, Inc. sent notification to the board of his plans to remove .46 acres from Chapter 61 Forestland Classification. This property is located on Acushnet Road and Mr. McIntire noted that the remaining 88.07 acres will continue to remain as forestland. Chairman DeCosta noted that this matter will be referred to the Planning Board for their files.

In other business, the Board voted to recommend William A. Calise to the Governor's office for appointment to the Mattapoisett Housing Authority for a term yet to be decided. Mr. Calise is a retired police officer and requested the appointment. Noting Mr. Calise's background, the board agreed unanimously that Mr. Calise's appointment would bring a qualified and experienced individual to the service of the town.

There being no further matters to come before the board, they adjourned for the evening.

After signing the warrants, payrolls and bills for the week and approving the minutes of the August 16 meeting, the board began going over agenda items for the week beginning with a request from Rev. Dr. Wilsey J. McKnight of the Marion Bible Fellowship to utilize the Music Hall on Front Street for Sunday worship services during the cold winter months. Dr. McKnight introduced himself to the board and explained that his congregation is presently using facilities at the Christian Campground, but the building is not heated during the winter. He asked if they could rent the Music Hall for three hours every Sunday morning for their services.

Selectman Schaefer said she had a problem in allowing a religious group to use a public building for this purpose, and she didn't feel comfortable in granting permission as such. "There should be a separation of church and state and I think there would be a problem in allowing you to use a town-owned building," she said.

Selectman Winters also noted that although the group agreed to be "responsible" for any damage incurred, would that coverage include an insurance policy against fire or vandalism? Chairman Dougall also mentioned that with the pending repairs and restoration on the building, granting permission for any one group to use the facility on a weekly basis would be inconvenient.

Although the board seemed willing to help Dr. McKnight find an alternate site, they were not in favor of granting permission to use the Music Hall. Dr. McKnight said he had considered the Masonic Lodge (former Marble Hardware) on Spring Street and asked that anyone else who had a suggestion to contact him.

At 7:15 pm residents and representatives of Quails' Crossing and Partridge Place came before the board to discuss repairs on the private way. Frank Germano, who resides at Partridge Place, spoke on behalf of those present.

"We're here to ask the board's help in getting our street fixed," he said. "It's become a hazardous situation where the road is in such bad shape with large potholes ... it's nearly impassable. Both the Post Office and Department of Public Works (DPW) have informed us that they will stop deliveries and snow plowing on the street if it isn't repaired."

Mr. Germano noted that the private way has been an ongoing problem for some time and the town is now in conflict with its owner, Ron Turowitz, of Bayside Development. The town will not grant Mr.

Turowitz any further Building Permits until the road repairs are complete. This has been holding up both the developer and the residents who live on the street, since they were promised the repairs would be made when they purchased their property.

"We were assured that there wouldn't be any further permits issued until the road was repaired," said Partridge Place resident Judith Melanson. "(Mr. Turowitz) was issued Board of Health permits on three of the lots in 1989."

Mr. Pickles noted that the Board of Health permits did not constitute the same agreement as Building Permits. "We have already put a mechanism in place where the potential buyer would be notified of the liabilities attached to the property," Mr. Pickles said. "I would think the individual home owners have a better chance of attaching the lots, as they were promised the road would be finished."

Chairman Dougall agreed to look into further options for the residents of the properties on the road, but cautioned that not much could really be done as the road is not a public way. Planning Board Chairman David K. Pierce noted that a meeting will be held on September 13 to discuss some information he's researched on the property and recommended that residents attend to voice their concerns.

board to inquire about the pending gift of land on Marvel Street to the town. Mr. Pickles explained that the property is an intended gift from Charles Sisson and he has been unable to follow up due to a recent family tragedy. But Mr. Pickles expects to finish up the deal sometime next month.

At 7:40 pm, Shirley Cowell came to the board regarding property now up for sale on River Road. According to Ms. Cowell, a drain was installed by the town of which the drainage pipe cuts directly across the property. She wanted to know if anything could be done to rectify this problem, as she cannot sell the property until this aberration is fixed.

"We have an interested buyer, but we need to take care of this before it's sold," she said.

Mr. Pickles noted that the drain was installed under an easement in 1965 and the only recommendation he would have would be to straighten out the drainage path which leads to the outfall. "You can't move the outfall, but you can move the drain,"

Mr. Pickles said. "For that, you'd have to apply to the Conservation Commission (ConCom)."

Under the DPW Report for the week, Chairman Dougall reported that work on the East and West wells will begin on September 9. The board also unanimously approved the submitted Fall Flushing Schedule.

Under incoming correspondence for the week, Chairman Dougall noted the following items:

• Planning Board By-Law revision request, dealing with the board member's terms of office. According to Planning Board Chairman David K. Pierce, "The Board has a critical need for a by-law revision for the election of Planning Board members. We recommend a change to reflect two board members to be elected in the spring of 1994 and two in the spring of 1995."

Mr. Pickles noted that the board will still have to elect three people this year to fill vacancies — two three-year terms and one one-year term — in order to get the rotation back on track. The amendment to the by-law will be placed on the next Special Town Meeting warrant.

Wiring Inspector "Pete" Bennett and Assistant Wiring Inspector Maurice B. Smith next sent a memo to the board asking that they consider a new fee schedule to upgrade Marion's schedule to Rochester's. Rochester pays its inspectors $15 per inspection plus 25 cents a mile in mileage compensation. Both men have requested the same $15 inspection fee, but agreed to waive the mileage compensation.

As the monies collected are put into a self-generating fund, Mr. Pickles warned that the budget will have to be worked out before making any decisions on changing the fee schedule. The board agreed to take this matter under advisement.

Eleanor Sundblad, a resident of Main Street, then sent a letter asking that the board look into the parking problems near the middle section of her street. Having contacted Police Chief Scott of the ongoing problem, she asked if something could be done to discourage people from parking in front of fire hydrants and residents' driveways.

"Maybe we could paint yellow lines on the curb to keep people from parking in these areas," she suggested.

Mr. Pickles noted that if cars are parking in driveways or near fire hydrants, "they should be ticketed or towed." But Selectman Schaefer wanted to take a good look at the areas in question. "Though I agree with you, we need to determine where they should go before we start painting yellow lines everywhere," she said.

The board said they would contact Chief Scott and ask for his recommendations on the matter.

Chairman Dougall then proudly noted that Harbormaster George Jennings is presently in Marion County, Missouri and has met with the mayor of Hannibal, where the local town's recent Flood Relief Drive netted some $35,000 worth of goods and services, which were sent via truck to the victims of the recent flooding.

"It was a very successful drive and there are many people who need to be commended for their efforts," Chairman Dougall said. "I would like to thank (Lori) Schaefer and the entire Marion Police Association for all their hard work and especially the residents of Marion and neighboring towns who donated to the

The month-long drive was held to garner donated goods or money to purchase goods to send to the victims of the recent flooding of the Mississippi River. Marion County was one of the hardest hit areas and the people of Marion, Massachusetts were only too glad to help.

There being no further matters to come before the board, they adjourned at 8:15 pm.

Selectmen was called to order on Tuesday, September 7 at 7:00 pm by Chairwoman Lorraine Roy Hawkes. Also present were Selectman David L. Hughes, Selectman Michael Murphy and Administrative Secretary Shirley A. Ferreira.

Following a unanimous approval of the minutes of the August 30 Board of Selectmen meeting, Chairwoman Hawkes reviewed the incoming correspondence for the week.

The Department of Environmental Protection (DEP), Southeastern Regional Office, sent a letter to the board regarding the Wetland Mill Pond Dam and Decas Cranberry Company. Chairwoman Hawkes requested that Mr. Nunes receive a copy of same.

The board next received information from Town Accountant, Claudette Coutu, regarding the actual receipts report from July 1, 1992 through June 30, 1993 for the fiscal 1994 recap sheet.

Next, the Rochester Board of Appeals sent their decision regarding the request of Michael J. Cambra of 17 Deerfield Terrace for a Special Permit under Section VIII D.9A of Protective By-Laws to allow the conversion of a single family dwelling to a two family dwelling. The Board of Appeals denied Mr. Cambra's request for the following reasons: "The issuance of a Special Permit would not be in harmony with the intent or purpose of the Rochester Protective By-Laws (and) sufficient lot size as required by the Rochester By-Laws has not been approved."

The board then received a Complaint Report from the Rochester Police Department regarding noise due to the operation of a sawmill at 20 Stuart Road. On September 2, 1993, Officer James Wassmouth responded to a noise complaint from Ms Eich. Officer Wassmouth informed both parties that "the town would decide seeing that it was already brought to their attention." Officer Wassmouth also noted in his report that while speaking with Ms. Eich "the cutter was running and she asked if I thought it was loud. I told her that I did not think it was but I did not listen to

The board also received Bulletins and Informational Guidelines from the Department of Revenue (DEP).

The Plymouth County Development Council notified the board of their 1993 Annual Meeting which will be held Monday, September 27, at the Ridder Country Club from 11:30 am - 2:00 pm. Ticket price is $20.00 per person. Anyone interested please R.S.V.P. to Executive Secretary Shirley Ferreira by September 16.

Chairwoman Hawkes noted that beneficiary cards for the towns Police and Fire Department employees will be mailed so the proper beneficiaries can be notified.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts Education Department sent notification regarding the Foundation Budget Program as effected by the Education Reform Act.

Next, Continental Cablevision informed the board of change in rates and charges. Selectman Hughes noted: "It's a general increase except for basic." Chairwoman Hawkes noted that Continental Cablevision has experienced a delay in sending its customers billing.

Under Old Business the board discussed the time frame for bidding on a four-acre, town-owned lot. Executive Secretary Shirley Ferreira stated that the board must notify the former owner 14 days before the Notice of Auction. The sealed bids will be held until September 27.

The board next discussed clarifications of the Earth Removal Permit for Great Bear Farms, Inc. Selectman Hughes proposed several amendments including:

- Water testing, to be paid by the holder of the permit, would include where necessary and when necessary seeing that some abutters may not need their water tested and for those who do why limit the time frame in which to conduct the test.

- The taking of pictures of Dexter Road to keep in the town's records.

- In the event alternate routes are necessary for the hauling of matter, the company should notify the offices of the Board of Selectmen.

- A 100-foot of asphalt/water sealer to be placed on Dexter Lane. Selectman Hughes argued that the road, currently oiled for protection, would be in danger of crumbling, and a sealant would aid in the preservation of the road.

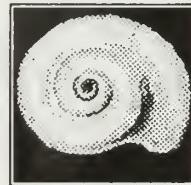

- An engineer or consultant will be hired if necessary if there were any discrepancy in the amount of earth removed or to be removed at the expense of the permit holder. Selectman Murphy inquired as to whether the town has used such a stipulation before, as he is "reluctant to start it with this one."

Selectman Hughes responded that it was suggested in the past. Chairwoman Hawkes stated that "I'm not in agreement with it until it's part of a by-law." Selectman Hughes reasoned that the town "never had something this big, for the benefit of the town." Selectman Murphy then agreed to the addition noting that the permit was to be discussed with Great Bear

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

New Bedford area voters voted 2 to 1 against the incineration of harmful PCB's in New Bedford harbor.

New Bedford city councillors vote unanimously opposing incineration on every issue presented to the council.

Congressman Barney Frank recently sent a letter to President Clinton expressing concerns and opposition to the incineration of PCB's, signed by elected public officials from Senators Mark Montigny, Marc Pacheco and Therese Murray all the way to local government officials — including Rosemary Tierney, mayor of New Bedford.

Yet, the EPA still continues its plans to burn, in New Bedford, PCB's, toxic waste, heavy metals and other contaminating substances.

What's wrong with this picture?

Sincerely,
Susan Grace
Mattapoisett

Woman's Club Birthday Calendar

The Mattapoisett Woman's Club is once again publishing the Community Birthday Calendar. As a result of its success last year, the group was able to award four $1,000 scholarships to area students.

An important feature of the calendar was a classified business directory to provide easy access to local business and professional telephone numbers frequently used by Mattapoisett residents. If you participated in the directory listing last year, the group hopes to count on you for support again this year.

The listing will cost $25, which is tax deductible. Your business or professional name and phone number will be listed under an appropriate classification and every participant will receive a complimentary calendar.

Deadline for inclusion in this year's calendar is September 15, and those listed last year who have not contacted the Woman's Club will be called to see if they wish to be included in this year's calendar. For further information, contact the Mattapoisett

On Saturday, September 11 at 7:00 pm and on Sunday, September 12 at 1:00 pm, the Marion Art Center's Advanced Young People's Theater presents "From The Kids," a play about growing up. conceived and produced the idea, these young people have each contributed to the script for the upcoming show. Growing up from 8 to 16 from the kids' point of view is the general theme for the scenes and monologues. Many pieces are humorous and others deal with dreams, fears and other emotions.

Although they are from different towns (Wareham, Rochester, Mattapoisett, Fairhaven and Marion) and attend different schools, their friendship and mutual enjoyment of the theater has bonded them closely over the years.

"This is probably the last production that this particular group will put on," said Ms. Shepardson. "They are growing and moving on." It's going to be a very special show. Sets and lights are by David must have a school council comprised of a teacher from each grade level, also the principal, a member of the local PTA and two citizens from the community who do not have a child in the school system. The PTA's responsibility is to ask the school community for nominations and then to prepare a ballot for the school community to vote for their representative.

Sweatshirt chairperson Pat Stinson reported that sales during Harbor Days were very successful. A motion was approved for Pat to order more sweatshirts for the upcoming sales at Open House.

The next scheduled PTA meeting will be October 5 at 7:00 pm in the Center School cafeteria. All new members, parents who are not yet members, and all former members are invited to come at 6:30 pm for an Open House before the business meeting. The group encourages all parents to join the PTA and to attend any meetings they can and to be assured that they will not be cajoled into endless hours of volunteering. You can make a difference in your child's education.

Search for the Missing Canoes

Mattapoisett Boy Scout Troop 53 is searching for four canoes that are "stored" somewhere in Mattapoisett! Their whereabouts are unknown at this time. If anyone has any information about them or knows where they are, it would be highly appreciated if they could contact Scout Master Philip Gaudet at 758-9403 or Quartermaster David Baker at 758-2049. The scouts are planning a canoe trip down the Saco River this fall, and it would be much easier with canoes. Thank you for your help.

A powerful prayer to the Holy Spirit -

Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, who light all roads so I can attain my goals, you who give me the divine gifts to forgive and forget all evil against me, in this short prayer, to thank you for all things and confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you, even in spite of all material illusions. I wish to be with you in eternal glory, thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. The person must say this prayer for three consecutive days. After three days, the favor requested will be granted, even if it may appear difficult. This prayer must be published immediately after the favor is granted without mentioning the favor. Only your initials shall appear at the bottom. C.S.
